DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The lengthy specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-34 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

- The primary reason for the allowance of claims 1-34 is the Applicant's claimed invention is a method that includes breaking or moving at least one frangible portion bounding a first track in which a plurality of first cover projections on a generally flexible cover move to enable the cover to open and close an opening to an interior storage area of a deposit holding container adapted to hold deposits made to an automated banking machine and moving the first cover projections out of the first track through a first opening in the first track created by breaking or moving the first frangible portion above. It is these limitations that have not been taught, found or suggested by prior art, either alone or combined as claimed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Prior Art

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

- Davis et al., US 6,059,090 teaches a flexible tambour door, #220
- Graef et al. US 4,370,006 teaches an interlock recess, #20
